

THE WOOL PLANK IN THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The Enterprise says: Article XI. of the Democratic platform reads as follows: "We commend the policy of the present Administration in strictly enforcing the tariff laws, the beneficial effect of which is so happily illustrated by the fact that the great wool-growing industry of the country receives more protection now by collecting the whole import duties on wool than it did under the high tariff of 1867, under the practice of Republican officials of letting foreign wool slip through our Custom houses at less than one-half of those rates."

It is very difficult indeed to understand what the Solons of the Elko Convention meant by the above farrago of words. They evidently thought with Tallyrand that words were made to conceal thoughts and not to express them. It probably occurred to them that the wool-growing interest of Nevada was an important one and on the increase, and that it required some sop in the platform they were constructing for the delectation of Democratic voters. When the plank is carefully studied, however, the evident meaning is that the Republican officials of the Custom Houses, who collected the revenue under the tariff of 1867, were very dishonest men, who let foreign wool slip through the Custom houses at less than one-half of said duties. As these baseless charges have been made for the last quarter of a century by the party whose disloyalty has excluded it from political power for that period, it is not proposed here to notice them.

The question then occurs what is the position of the Democratic party in Nevada on the policy of protection to the wool-growing interest in our State, and the answer must be beyond a doubt that it is hostile to the ranchmen in this matter. The platform has dodged the issue by imputations of dishonesty on the Republican officials of 1867 and thereafter. Not one word in it favors protecting this industry, which is becoming more and more valuable here each succeeding year. It is unquestionably true that the Democracy of Nevada is in strict accord with that of the party throughout the country, which is especially hostile to the wool-growing product. Two years ago Mr. Morrison introduced a bill for the horizontal reduction of duties that protect American labor. Last Winter he greatly limited this assault on our industries. His tariff was in a good measure confined to a reduction of duties on wool alone. He was so hostile to wool that he was much like John Randolph, who used to say that he never saw a sheep without wishing to kick it. Mr. Morrison's wool-reducing tariff bill received the support of nearly the whole Democratic party in the House, and was defeated by Republican votes. Had it passed it would have seriously injured the profits of wool growing in this State. While the bill was pending Mr. Cleveland sent for and talked with a considerable number of Democrats and tried to persuade them to vote for the Morrison bill. Thus it will be seen that the Administration is as hostile to this product of our labor as it is to the silver of our mines, and as the Democratic platform declares that the Administration of Cleveland "challenges our (their) highest admiration," it is an admonition to the miner and the ranchman that they need expect no protection to their labor from the Democratic party. There are other products of our State that need protection, as, for instance, salt, borax and soda, the mining of which promises much success. The voters of Nevada who desire the speedy development of all the sources of the wealth of this State will bear these facts in mind at the ensuing election.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company, through Fredrick J. Ames, trustee of the land-grant bonds, advertises for proposals or the sale to him of land-grant bonds of the value of $2,164,000, which he is authorized to apply to apply to such purchase.

Sensible ways of Avoiding Strikes.

Many strikes might be avoided if the course just followed in the Harmony Cotton Mills at Cohoes, N. Y., were generally adopted. The men wanted more pay, but the company told them that they could not afford an advance, and that they were already paying as much as mills in their line at Fall River and elsewhere. The men did not believe it, whereupon the manufacturers offered, if the men would select a reliable man to travel about the mills and look up the subject of wages, to pay all his expenses and to raise the wages if they were not as high as elsewhere. A boss weaver has been through Massachusetts and has gone back to Cohoes with the statement that the wages are as high as any paid in the country, and that his fellow-workmen have no cause to complain.

An Appeal for Charleston.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 18.—Mayor Courteney yesterday issued the following proclamation:

CITY OF CHARLESTON,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
September 17, 1886.

To the Public:—The City Council of Charleston at its regular meeting, on the 14th inst., took the following action:

WHEREAS, A terrible calamity has befallen Charleston, vast and wide-spread in the loss it inflicts, is far greater in effect, than was at first realized, and,

WHEREAS, It is evident that the liberal and spontaneous assistance, which has come to us from all parts of this country and from England, and which is deeply appreciated and gratefully acknowledged by our people, will be wholly insufficient to meet our present exigencies. Be it

Resolved, That the Mayor be requested to prepare and issue an address to the public, setting forth our condition, and evoking additional aid for this stricken city. In making known to the general public this deliberation of the municipal government as to the condition of our city, at this time, it seems to me unnecessary that I should add any word of my own. The unfortunate facts are before country by statements of disinterested visitors, from different parts of the land, after personal observation, and are known here and deeply felt. I ask the press of the United States to give this proclamation the benefit of its far reaching circulation.

WILLIAM COURTENEY.

There was a slight shock of an earthquake at 2:25 o'clock yesterday morning.

Congress is not in session just now, but its place in the public mind was more than filled last week by the meeting of the American Society of Professors of Dancing, at New York. The professors aimed to establish uniformity in dancing, so that a person who has learned the art in one part of the country can practice it in any other. They also gave their official sanction to three new dances to be introduced the coming season. These are the "American Gavotte," the "Columbia" and the "Octagon."

The World's Washington special says: The last man to be named in connection with the Austrian mission is Congressman Randolph Tucker, of Virginia, and the President has all along felt that he would be glad to recognize Tucker at the expiration of his Congressional career, which will close with the next session of Congress, as he declined to stand for re-election. The appointment would be very acceptable to Secretary Bayard.

Official estimates of the Russian harvests show that the yield of Winter wheat will be 6,500,000 bushels, a falling off of fully 50 per cent. from last year. The Spring wheat crop shows an increase of about 40 per cent. or 2,350,000 bushels. White rye also shows a slight increase. The oat crop is estimated at 90,000,000 bushels, and the barley crop at 22,000,000, both being up to their full average.

The convention of Anti-Saloon Republicans assembled at Chicago passed resolutions in favor of the submission of prohibition amendments to the people of the several States, and demanding in the meantime heavy licenses on the saloon business.

The Santa Barbara Republican County Convention passed a resolution calling for an investigation of the charges against Walter S. Moore, the candidate for Secretary of State.

President Diaz on the Cutting and Arresture Cases.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 16.—In his annual message to Congress, read on the assembling of that body to-day, President Diaz said that Mexico's relations with foreign Governments had continued generally on terms of friendship and good understanding. There had, however, recently occurred an incident which threatened to destroy the harmony and cordiality existing between this republic and its neighbor. The case was of small importance in itself, but it excited in an unexpected manner passions on either side of the Rio Grande. "I refer," continued the message, "to the matter of the American journalist, which has already come to your knowledge by publications made in the Diaro Oficial. We must congratulate ourselves that in such an emergency the dignity of the Government and the good name of the country could be saved without arousing a conflict. Thanks to the prudent and strictly legal conduct of the courts and authorities of the State of Chihuahua, as well as to the good sense of our own people and the Government of the United States which when better informed, did not insist on the demand which gave rise to the transient difficulty. The Texas papers have alleged too other cases of alleged outrages on citizens of that country by officials of our own. In their eagerness to accumulate charges against Mexico they have referred mistakenly to the case of an individual named Francisco Arresures, the author of various crimes committed on our own territory. It will suffice to observe that Arresures was of Mexican nationality and was voluntarily delivered by the Texan authorities to a force of the State of Coahuila, without any previous demand for his extradition, so that in this case it will be seen that the supposed citizen of the United States there is no occasion for controversy between the two Governments."

Cured by the Earthquake.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 7.—A strange incident of last week's earthquake shock is the recovery of the power of speech by Miss Mamie Martus, daughter of a retired officer of the Regular Army. At the close of the war her father was put in charge of Fort Pulaski and Jackson, below this city. While at the former fort the daughter, then a bright, intelligent child, had an attack of meningitis, which left her voiceless. The best medical skill was obtained and the father took his afflicted child traveling, but nothing did her any good. She was dumb, but had all the other senses. During the excitement of the first earthquake shock last Tuesday night, she, in her fright, attempted to call her brother. He was frightened himself when he heard her whisper his name. Since then she has gradually regained her voice, and now talks with perfect fluency. She says she was almost delirious with joy when she found that she could speak. Her voice was low and her throat sore for three days, and she had trouble in finding words to express her thoughts. It was much like learning a new tongue, except that she knew the words, but had forgotten how to pronounce them. City physicians are deeply interested in the case. Their explanation is that the recovery was due to intense mental excitement.

Trouble With the Coast Survey.

Ever since the present Administration came into power it has been having trouble in the Coast Survey Office, and constant changes have been made in the personnel of the office. So perplexing is the task which the Treasury officials have been trying to bring order out of the chaos existing in the bureau, that it is proposed to abolish it altogether by Randall's method of withholding appropriations, as was done at the last session in the case of the National Board of Health. It is thought that if it can be legislated out of existence it can be reorganized and its utility to the nation improved. A large number of the employees of the bureau are engaged in work on the Pacific Coast, and they would all have to be discharged and stand their chances of being reappointed at the beginning of another fiscal year, when the reorganization will take effect.

PEOPLE WHO BUILD UP A TOWN.—We'll build up a place: People who, when they've got a dollar or so in their pockets, walk around like drum majors on dress parade, send to McChronic's store "down to the city, you know," pay $1 for an article that can be bought at home for the same price, and then expend another "hog" as expressage, saving money "under goods, nah;" or, who patronize a cormorant establishment that "does not believe in advertising;" but remember these same individuals, when busted, as it were, howl home patronage vociferously, and can't buy too much, if the merchants will trust. Might as well have a flock of goats, tributary to such a town.

CHURCHILL NOMINATIONS.—The Republican County Convention met at Stillwater Thursday, and made the following nominations: State Senator, Chas. Kaiser; Assemblyman, P. H. Parker; Commissioner (long term) Walter Ferguson; Commissioner (short term) Albert Boyer; Recorder, Wm. Murphy; Assessor, W. L. Dalton; Treasurer, D. H. Dillard; District Attorney, A. W. Faxon; Sheriff, John P. Brown; Clerk, J. J. Chambers; Surveyor, A. S. Dillme; School Supt., J. P. Denning. Delegates to the State Convention, W. W. Williams, John W. Ferguson.

DISTRICT FAIR.—The District Fair, opens at Greenville Monday, and from present indications, promises to be the best as well as the largest yet held in the District. All the races have been filled with noted flyers from all over the country. The display of productions of the District will be large. All who can, should attend.

The suit of ex-Supreme Court Clerk John W. McCarthy against Loring Pickering and George Fitch to recover $100,000 damages for an alleged libelous article published in the Call of February 13, 1885, regarding the erratic clerk's peculiar methods and flight to the Hawaiian Islands, has been dismissed for lack of prosecution.

Consul Stevens, at Victoria, B. C., in a report to the Department of State, calls attention to the fact that mercurials in considerable quantities from San Francisco, destined for Chicago and New York, is being shipped over the Canadian Pacific Railway.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

RENO.

Yesterday was a quiet day.

Hayward Heltott, who was seen rusticated at Santa Cruz, returned yesterday morning.

The Democratic primaries passed off very quietly yesterday. A very small vote was polled.

Services at the Baptist Church this morning and evening. Rev. C. L. Fisher, Pastor. Sabbath School at 12:30 P. M. An invitation cordially extended.

Mr. M. V. Follett has been appointed Superintendent of the Chubbuck railroad, near Rowland's. His family will reside at Glenbrook and his business will continue there as usual.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Nevada Live Stock Association in Reno on Thursday, October 7, 1886, for the transaction of such business as may come before it.

The Sagebrush Stockman received a new hand press yesterday and will hereafter do their own presswork. This speaks well for the new paper and shows that the proprietors have come to stay.

As there is always an hour before the maskers are ready for the grand march at a masquerade ball that the spectators have to amuse themselves the best way they can, Walter Hastings has decided to give a concert from 8 until 9 o'clock in the Theater on the evening of the go-as-you-please masquerade for the benefit of those who do not dance.

Remember the firemen's ball at Armory Hall on Friday evening of Fair week and all turn out and give the "fire laddies" a lift. Every property owner of the district should buy a ticket, as the boys have had little encouragement from our citizens, and not being remunerated for their time and trouble, it is high time something was done to show them that their endeavors were appreciated.

BASE BALL FAIR WEEK.—The Quincy boys have written in enquiring about the premium to be offered for base ball playing. For the information of all we will state that the entrance fee will be $50, with five or more to enter and the Society to add $150. This inquiry shows that the Quincy club is thinking very seriously of paying us a visit Fair week, and our home boys should exert themselves to see that the prize was filled for the tournament at the Fair and that all visiting clubs enjoyed themselves while here, and went home saying that Reno is the boss town in Nevada to visit.

NOT A CANDIDATE.—Hon. Wm. Woodburn, Nevada's much respected Congressman, informs the Carson Tribune that he is not a candidate for Governor of the State. Mr. W. has been often spoken of for Supreme Judge and if he would accept, most surely he would carry the State. Republicans and Democrats alike desire that Mr. Woodburn should represent the State in Congress, and it remains with the gentleman to select for himself, as he is undoubtedly one of the most popular men in Nevada.

DIED FROM HOME.—With sorrowful feeling the Tribune announces the death of Miss Jessie R. Hawley, youngest daughter of our Supreme Judge, at Spring Park, Florida. The sad news was telegraphed to her brother, Ernest Hawley, and the worst of all is that Judge Hawley will not be in time to receive the last caress of his beloved child.

Congregational Church.—Rev. G. M. Spencer, pastor. Preaching on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock; Sabbath School directly after morning service; evening service at 7:30.

Methodist Church.—Preaching at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. by T. P. Bradshaw the pastor. Sunday School at 12:15 P. M. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30.

THE LADIES' TOURNAMENT.—The Sacramento Fair of Friday has been a day regarding the final contest and awarding of prizes at the Sacramento Fair. One of the largest audiences ever seen at Agricultural Park was present to witness the ladies' riding tournament this morning. Long ere the hour appointed for the ladies to appear on the track, the grand stand was crowded, and there was a very large number of vehicles in the paddocks. When the contestants appeared on the quarter stretch the grand and special stands were thronged with people, principally ladies, who were attired with dresses of many varied colors, making a beautiful scene and one never to be forgotten. The ladies were Miss Amelia Moore, Chico; Mrs. Kate George, Sacramento; Miss May Maloney, Nevada City; Miss Belle Ellis, Sacramento; Miss Stella Stroude, Sacramento; Misses Anna and Johanna Kemler, Paradise, Nev.; Miss Ella Bewley, San Francisco; Miss Winnie Clark, Yolo, and Miss Ida Fox, Stockton. After promeneading up and down on the quarter stretch singly, in twos, threes and fours, a hurdle was placed in position, over which all entered their horses. The Misses Kemler and Ellis made their horses take the hurdle at full speed. As each horse jumped the hurdle the riders were recipients of rounds of applause. Miss Fox rode a black horse at the hurdle on the second attempt and shortly after making the leap she fell off, but fortunately was uninjured. After brushing the dust from her clothes, she mounted her old horse, and was warmly applauded for her pluck. The prizes were awarded as follows: Miss Ida Fox, first prize, $70; Miss Amelia Moore, second prize, $55; Miss Anna Kemler, third prize, $40; Miss Johanna Kemler, fourth prize, $35; Miss Belle Ellis, fifth prize, $30; Miss May Maloney, sixth prize, $25; Mrs. Kate George, seventh prize, $20; Mrs. Ella Bewley, eighth prize, $15; Miss Winnie Clark, ninth prize, $10; and Miss Stella Stroude, tenth prize, $10.

There seemed to be considerable disappointment on the part of the spectators at the manner in which the awards were made, many going so far as to say that the judges had proved themselves thoroughly incompetent for the positions they occupied. It seemed to be the general opinion that the Misses Kemler, of Paradise, Nevada, who provoked so much enthusiasm by their daring and skillful horseman-ship, would receive first and second prizes. There were, however, various other points of award besides daring and skill, and it must be supposed that, in the judge's estimation, the young ladies from the sagebrush State fell far below their competitors on these other counts. It was not, however, the award of the first and second prizes that seemed to surprise the audience, but other prizes as well.

LICENSE MATTERS.—The Carson Tribune says: The liquor dealers at Reno are on the qui vive concerning the Liquor Dealers' Association organized last year. A Livingston, of Carson, is President and Geo. C. Bryson, Secretary of the organization, but it seems as though the matter had been left in statu quo, by those whose interest it is to protect themselves against the merchants who are permitted by the statute to sell by the bottle or up to five gallons without any other than their regular license, whilst the heavy license-paying saloon-keepers lose all their bottle trade. It is now proposed by the saloon men of the State to stir up this, to them, very important matter and demand of all candidates for the Legislature their sentiments on the question, and any man from any county who will not promise to so modify the statutory law, making it compulsory for all store-keepers to pay the same State and county license as do the saloon-keepers, certainly should not have a vote from any saloon-keeper in the State of Nevada.

THE LUCKY MAN.—The lucky man, says the Carson Tribune, who won one-tenth of the capital prize in the last drawing of the Louisiana lottery, or $15,000, showed up to-day. He is a Canadian Frenchman named Alex Mahoux. He sent $5 to the lottery managers for the August drawing, but was late, so they sent him coupons for the September drawing. The ticket was deposited with Agent Pierce, of W. F. & Co., for collection.

LASSEN COUNTY REPUBLICANS.—The Lassen County Republican Convention was held in Susanville September 11th and resulted in the nomination of the following county ticket: Sheriff, J. L. Peck; Clerk, E. G. Ward; District Attorney, E. R. Dodge; Assessor, W. R. Harrison; Treasurer, Jules Alexander; School Superintendent, W. H. Roney; Public Administrator, Robert Johnson. The County Central Committee is made up of the following gentlemen: At large, E. R. Dodge, Wm. Davis, J. A. Gilman; First District, E. W. Hayden, J. T. Masten; Second District, Fred Hines, J. P. Garrett; Third District, A. C. Bragg, J. Theodore; Fourth District, N. Bisber, Wm. Barrell; Fifth District, L. Knudson, L. H. Hopkins; G. W. Meylert, Chairman; L. M. Bidwell, Secretary. The Convention adopted the following platform:

The Republican party of Lassen County in Convention assembled, hereby heartily endorse the Republican State Convention recently held in Los Angeles, and especially those portions which declare: "That the coming of Chinese laborers to the United States must be stopped. That all should pay a full share of the public taxes fairly due, and in accordance with the broad principles of equity."

That it is in favor of the immediate passage of a law declaring that henceforth no rights to water shall be acquired by appropriation, which will in any manner obstruct the State in the control thereof, whenever it shall see proper to exercise such control.

That it is in favor of the passage of laws which will prevent the monopolizing of the waters of the State, and promote their utilization to the greatest extent possible.

That in the passage of any laws upon this subject, individual rights are found to interfere with effectuating a just distribution of water and its utilization by the people on equal terms, then such rights should be condemned, and taken for public use, under the same principles upon which all private property is condemned and taken for public use, upon compensation being made therefor.

Resolved, That we are opposed to the extra session policy of the present State administration, and believe that a change of political parties in power, would be for the best interests of the whole people.

A SCARCITY OF WOOD.—Two coal-burning engines have been put on the Sacramento division of the O. P. R. R. for the purpose of experimenting on the proposition as to whether they can be run through the long snowbeds with safety to the traveling public. The Truckee Republican says: This course has been rendered necessary on account of the scarcity of wood this season. The immense freight and passenger traffic, which resulted from cut rates last Spring, and the G. A. R. excursions this Summer caused an extra consumption of fuel, and the railroad company finds itself short of wood at a time when they need a large quantity. There is said to be less than 20,000 cords now on hand east of the Summit. Be as economical as possible, this would not last through the Winter. The annual consumption of wood by the Central Pacific Railroad is about 100,000 cords.

THE INSANE ASYLUM.—All who visit the Asylum and ascertain the number of patients therein realize the fact that an addition to the building is absolutely necessary. There should be erected a house for the mild class of female lunatics and for needed attention to them relations would gladly pay. There are many insane women in the State Asylum who, although insane on certain propositions, are not fit to be placed in the same class with their superiors, educationally and socially. It is to be hoped that the matter will be attended to by the next Legislature. So says Deacon Parkinson in the Tribune after a visit to the Asylum.

GRAND OPENING OF THE TEMPLE OF FASHION, OCT. 1st TO 6th INCLUSIVE.—Mrs. Hessel respectfully invites the ladies of Reno and vicinity to attend the grand opening of the Temple of Fashion at which time she will have on exhibition the largest and most complete stock of millinery goods ever displayed in this city. She also takes pleasure in announcing to her friends and patrons that she has also secured for the coming season an experienced artist whose ability and refined taste will be a guarantee of perfect satisfaction to all.

LADIES, LADIES!—Your attention is called to the large and well assorted stock of ribbons that have just been received at Mrs. Hessel's Temple of Fashion.
